Dear Sisters and Brothers
Dear Colleagues and Friends,

PSI is pleased to invite you to take part into the following PSI activity:

PSI Global Labour Remunicipalisation¹ Workshop

“Building union strategies to bring public services back in-house”

DATES AND VENUE

The global workshop will take place on 4-5 December 2018 in Room IV of the International Labour Organization ILO, Route des Morillons 4, Geneva Switzerland.

DRAFT AGENDA

A draft agenda for this workshop is attached to this invitation.

LANGUAGES

Interpretation will be available in ENGLISH, FRENCH AND SPANISH.

PARTICIPANTS

This workshop is aimed at trade union representatives with a direct experience of remunicipalising public services and/or with an interest in peer learning about these processes with a view to engage and drive remunicipalisation processes in the future. We welcome allied civil society organization representatives, academics and activists.

CONCEPT NOTE

A concept note is attached to this invitation outlining the background and workshop objectives.

REGISTRATION

Please confirm your participation by filling out the attached registration form and sending it back to Nobuko Mitsui at nobuko.mitsui@world-psi.org by 23 November at the latest.

We look forward to seeing you in Geneva,

In solidarity,

Rosa Pavanelli
PSI General Secretary

¹ The term “remunicipalisation” is now increasingly used to indicate the process of transitioning privately owned and/or managed public services back into public hands. Likewise, “bringing back in-house”, “in-sourcing” or “de-privatisation” in English as well as “Reestatalisación” and “republicisación” in Spanish are used to indicate the same process.
