- activities prior to IAMRECON (sectorial, transversal etc.)
- calendar leading up to the conference, with deadlines for resolutions, participant registrations, conference date etc.
- constitutional changes: clarifications
- definition of sponsorships and other budgetary issues
- other issues as required by participants

10:45 Coffee break

11:00 Continuation of discussions

What was discussed in November in Geneva:

- Place: Buenos Aires
- Date: Second half of June 2019
- Format: sectorial meetings, transversal meetings and congress. Total: 4 days.
- Participants: approximately 300
- Program proposal:
 1. The political content arises from the PSI World Congress with the corresponding updates and regional strategies. To address the world plan of action as it relates to each sector and to decide consequent developments.

2. Organizational aspects that demand more reflection include issues such as relations between the regional sectorial federations and PSI (CONTUA, CONTRAM, UITOC, CONTAGUA etc.); strengthening links between the Caribbean, USA and Canada and the sectorial work; new sectors or sub-sectors.

12:30 Lunch

14:00 Reports of the PSI Inter-American Women's Regional Committee and Young Workers' Regional Committee

14:45 Central issues related to the ILO for the next period

- The ILC/ILO agenda, the future of work: central issues and opportunities
- Convention on the protection of whistleblowers
- ILO – 19th American Regional Meeting (Panama, 2-5 October 2018)

15:30 Final conclusions

16:00 End of the meeting
